Lamprey River Cleanup (Saturday, May 7, 2011, 10AM-2PM, Wiswall Dam)

Come help with the annual cleanup for a very popular and beautiful spot to fish. Cookout will follow the cleanup. Contact Mitch Kalter (m.kalter@comcast.net)

Cocheco Day (Saturday, May 21, 2011, Setup begins 9AM in Measured Progress Lower Parking Lot)

Come help with the celebration! There will be a cleanup, TIC fish release, water testing, bug collecting and study, and possibly some stocking. Help lead a group. There will also be a cookout. Contact Mark Seymour (Seymourwoodworking@mail.ttlc.net)

Strafford Rivers Conservancy Fishing Day (Saturday June 4, 2011, 9AM- Noon, Cocheco River)

Come help show some of the members of the Strafford Rivers Conservancy and their families why we appreciate their land protection and conservation work so much. Let's take them fishing! It is all about saying thank you. Yeah, these are the people who helped save Stonehouse Pond. Contact Mitch Kalter (m.kalter@comcast.net)

Amy's Treat River Days (Saturday, October 1, 2011 & Saturday, October 15, 2011)

Come and help provide two beautiful fall days on the river for patients of the Seacoast Cancer Center and their families. Last year's event was so much fun we were asked if we could do two this year! We are happy to oblige. Contact Wendy Nixon (fishinnixon2@comcast.net)

After School Fly Tying (Tuesdays 2:30-4PM, January-April)

- Help instruct and or assist teaching Middle School students the skills and art of fly tying. Most students are at the beginner level. Volunteers accepted on a single day or longer term commitment. Goal is for 3-4 instructors per session. All equipment and materials are supplied. Contact Mitch Kalter (m.kalter@comcast.net) for details.

Trout-in-the-Classroom- (Ongoing)

Become a classroom liaison or help us maintain and troubleshoot these chiller equipped aquariums in our area schools. Contact Mark Seymour (Seymourwoodworking@mail.ttlc.net) for details.

Officer & Board of Directors- (Ongoing)

Great Bay TU is always looking for people with ideas and energy to help lead, organize and help administer the chapter. Feel free to contact any of our Officers and Directors for inquiries and information on how you can contribute or email us at greatb3@greatbaytu.org .
